Item 2: Educational Background & Business Experience

Gary Vawter, CFP®, MS, AEP, born in 1962, has been the Principal Advisor and Owner of Vawter Financial, Ltd. since 1991. Gary received his Bachelors of Science degree in Business Administration, majoring in Finance, from The Ohio State University in 1985.

He later obtained the Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®) certification from the College for Financial Planning in Denver, CO which required completion of coursework from a CFP Board-registered academic program, passing a CFP® Certification Examination, and three years of full-time work experience applying financial planning knowledge to client situations. The CFP® certification requires agreement to adhere to the CFP Board's Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility, Rules of Conduct and Financial Planning Practice Standards, and acknowledge the CFP Board's right to enforce them through its Disciplinary Rules and Procedures. Thirty hours of continuing education credits every two years are required to renew this certification.

Gary received his Master of Science (MS) degree with the specialty of retirement planning from the College for Financial Planning in 1993.

He earned the Accredited Estate Planner® (AEP®) designation as well as a certificate in Estate Planning and Taxation in 2012. The AEP® designation is awarded by the National Association of Estate Planners & Councils (NAEPC) to recognized estate planning professionals who meet special requirements of education, experience, knowledge, professional reputation, and character. A minimum of five years of experience engaged in estate planning and estate planning activities is required to apply for this designation, as well as completion of coursework and passing an examination. Applicant's sign a declaration statement agreeing to continuously abide by the NAEPC Code of Ethics, and must complete thirty hours of continuing education every two years, fifteen of which must be focused on estate planning to maintain the designation.

Gary earned the Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC®) designation, which is obtained by completing 6 core, 2 elective courses and a final exam for each course. As a prerequisite the IAR must have 3 years of full time business experience within the 5 years preceding the awarding of the designation. This designation requires 30 hours of continuing education every 2 years.

Gary also holds the Series 6, 7, 25, 53, and 62 licenses, and is licensed by the Ohio Department of Insurance for life, health, disability and variable products.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the evaluation of Gary Vawter.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Gary Vawter is a licensed insurance agent. He may offer insurance products and receive normal and customary fees as a result of insurance sales. A conflict of interest may arise as these insurance sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation he and/or our supervised persons may earn.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Gary Vawter does not receive any other economic benefit for providing advisory services in addition to advisory fees.

Item 6: Supervision

Gary Vawter is the sole principal and Chief Compliance Officer and as such has no internal supervision placed over him. He is, however, bound by our firm's Code of Ethics.

Item 7: Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Gary Vawter has not been involved in any arbitration claim alleging damages in excess of $2,500. Furthermore, he has neither been involved in nor found liable in any civil, self-regulatory organization, or administrative proceeding nor has been the subject of any bankruptcy petitions.
